GRIDLEY'S SALT RHEUM OINTMENT.
From Dr. Ayres, Druggist, Havans, N. Y.
AVANA, Chemang Co., N. Y., January 14, 1841.—1 certify that 1 have sold A Gridley's valuable Salt Rheum Ointment for six rs past, which has been warranted to cure in all cases. I believe years past, which has been warranted to cure in all cases. I believe there have not been to exceed three or four cases of its failing in the many dozens I have sold. Some cases of Scald Head, and one of long standing in this village, was effectually cured by the use of it, three years since. I consider it a most invaluable remedy for cutaneous discases generally; it has taken the place of all other remedies in this part of the country for several years, and does not run down, but increases in popularity and demand. SHAS C. AYERS.

tents are designed as an advertisement.

I know that the flattering testimentals which sprinkle the pages of the daily and weekly papers, in pating some new nostrum, do so burlesque the sections of medicine and unfold the capidity of the arch necromancer—who would pain off upon the public his new edition of old nostriums as his own now invention, but which were really invented in the good old leaden age of ignorance, long since expleded by the light of science—that they are calculated to set down any thing like a specific in the light of deception. But the pretended inventors of patent medicine of the present day deceive themselves by introducing a plausible yet hypothetical theory, forcing by a farlacious rule the whole law of physiology and essential nature into the narrow compass where but a few simples, by some hocus pocus and nonsensical ceremony, are at last found to wipe out the curse of Adam—half the jublice and sing "Oh grave," where is thy victory !—Oh death; where is thy sting?" as they will tell of wondrous restorations far and near, that the creditions are at once shocked to see the weekly returns of these long since set down all specifics as unworthy of points.

mony, are at last found to wipe out the curse of Adam—hait the jubles and sing. Oh grave, where is the victory—Oh death: where is the viting.

It as they will tell of wondrous restorations far and neor, that the conditions are at once abocked to see the weekly returns of my death of the conditions are at once abocked to see the weekly returns of my death of the conditions are at once abocked to see the weekly returns of my defects and facts, with day and dates, no a letter Mr. Reddied gave to Dr. Thorp. There seemed to be no aumining up of theoretical points to make a case suit a medicine, but he described points and related symptoms so parallel with my own case, that it at once struck man the proper course to be pursued in advertising a medicine, and I determined to jurisue the same; for, if a medicine is really what it is not obe, it should be supported by corresponding evaluation. Carmins that both hi do know, that whereas I was once on the very sego of the grave, wasted to a skeleton, but now I am as dody as in my must health, days, and in pool of this I can name many respectable and action whereas the condition of the conditing the manner less than the condition of the condition of the con
